To the Voters, Businesspeople, and Residents of Oakland:

As you may know, I am a candidate for Councilman of the Town of Oakland. Since there are three candidates this year, I am taking this opportunity to share my basic thoughts with you, and to request that you vote for my candidacy and the following positions:

*We must exercise the same thought and care with tax dollars as we do with our own family incomes. *We must begin to anticipate and plan for growth to protect and preserve our good quality of life. *Our town's future is linked with our neighboring communities and the county, and cooperation and cost-effectiveness must be our main considerations. *Our future prosperity depends upon keeping and attracting clean, private business and industry.

I ask your support and votes in this election, and seek your advice and guidance during this term. I pledge to represent your interests in the business of the town.

county elementary schools is both visible and audible, under direction of music resource teacher Harold Hudnall. The new program, which began for the first time in county elementary schools last fall, attracted 45 guitar class members and seven violin players at Dennett Road School and six violinists at

At Friendsville, scheduling does not permit youngsters to get violin instruction during the course of the day, so these dedicated students stay after school for a 40-minute session one day a week. and practice at home.

Mr. Hudnall credited school principals Clark Sharpless and Mrs. Jane Fox, and Harold Garrett, instructional supervisor K-8, with helping get the new classes underway. Other schools in the state have had elementary guitar classes for several years, but this is a popular first in Garrett.

Bolden Bill Would Give Tax Breaks To Fire Companies

Volunteer fire companies and rescue squads would be allowed to lease out property for up to 60 days without losing a property tax exemption under a bill heard last week by the House Ways and Means

Del. DeCorsey E. Bolden (R-Allegany, Garrett), sponsor of HB 1379, told the committee that fire companies are hard pressed for money and the taxexempt leasing proposal would be a big boost for the firemen.

He said many companies own property other than the fire hall, and lease facilities for such activities as carnivals.

The bill states that the tax exemption would be granted provided the fire companies lease property for not more than 60 days during a year. It also stipulates that the revenue from the leasing would be used

HUDSON® VITAMINS THE ONLY DIFFERENCE IS THE PRICE

Your doctor can tell you Hudson's Adavite and Adayite-M multivitamins are equivalent to Squibb's Theragran and Theragran M.

Winterfest IV Brings Hundreds To Enjoy Balmy Weather, Varied Activities At Wisp

Second row, Queen Pam Trickett displays her elation after her coronation Thursday evening at the kickoff dinner. Governor Marvin Mandel spent a weekend in the mountains, and mingled with the visitors to the Fest; a K-9 corpsman from the Maryland State Police barracks at LaVale shows off his prize weapon; Carolyn Martin, McHenry, provides liquid refreshment to a competitor in the annual Swalom Race.

Third row, an airborne skier was just one of the many graceful competitors in ski events Saturday and Sunday. Terry King, of Radio Station WMSG, provided music at Wisp for those who were temporarily tired of the outdoors. Jack Bogut, KDKA radion in Pittsburgh, was an amusing speaker for the kickoff banquet Thursday evening; the Northern High School Band provided several selections Saturday afternoon, under direction of Melvin Schwing.

Lesson for March 13, 1977

Background Scripture: Devotional Reading: Luke 13 31-35 The old Negro spiritual tells us that, although everybody "talks" about Heaven, it doesn't mean everybody's "goin' there." So. also, lots of people "talk" about tory. Perhaps discipline in the Christian Church more highly touted nor poorly taught, than prayer. Described glowingly as one of the most vital resources in the spiritua! life. it is more often observed, as Harry Emerson Fosdick once remarked, as "a pious form rather than a vital transaction

The persistent petitioner failure is to be seen in the problem is not that God will not erroneous suppostions which many people harbor when it that person himself is blocking comes to praying They approach the channel through which God's it as if the key in prayer were to be grace would flow. Jesus knew well this popular misconception concerning prayer and he told some parables to try to change these unfruitful attitudes

One of these parables (Luke 18 1-8) tells an interesting story about a persistent widow who finally gets the local judge to defend her rights by hounding him continually. The brief personality sketch of the judge is illustrative of the kind of public official that was recognizable to his listeners: he "neither feared God nor regarded man

The point of the parable, of course, is this if an unjust judge will be moved to do justice if he is persistently petitioned. how much more will a loving God do if we bring him our petitions' The contrast could not be more vivid the judge respects no one, thinks only of his own needs, cares nothing about the plight of others, and wouldn't help anyone unless it served his own interests. God, on the other hand, loves men, cares about them, is concerned about their needs, is sensitive to their cries. prayer, but that doesn't mean and responds to persistance But their experience of it has been persistance is required not bevery satisfac- cause God needs to be goaded or reminded, but because man must there is no persist in his receptivity' Our persistance enables God to do the good for us that he already wants to do

Not like other men

The second parable (Luke 18

9-14) also centers on two readily identifiable personalities First, there is the self-righteous Pharisee who has all the "right" religious credentials except for two. He lacks humility and he despises others whom he feels don't live up to his pious standards. The message in this parable is clear don't expect effective prayer if you are proud One of the reasons for this and disdainful of others. The answer such a person, but that

Monthly News 🗏 🛭 DON'T PRACTICE MEDICINE ON YOUR OWN!

There is an old axiom that says, "He who is his own physician, has a fool for a patient." It is just not wise to try to treat or cure an ailment unless you are able to determine the real cause. And, only a physician has the knowledge to diagnose a problem.

You can save sickness-time, discomfort and probably some medical bills if you immediately consult your physician at the first symptoms of an illness or if you have recurring symptoms of any physical distress.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

For this reason, I have introduced a bill which provides for interpreters in federal courts for those with impaired hearing. Mt. Top Christian Academy School Brings Forth Achievement, Individuality, Discipline, the Bible

Imagine a classroom with nearly total silence, smiling youngsters going about their work almost without talking, and work accomplished at a child's individual pace, and you have a glimmering of what it is like to visit the Mt. Top Christian Academy

With public schools and educational problems so much in the foreground these days, many people often forget, if they were ever aware, that the first school in the United States was held in a church, that the first teacher was a minister, and the first textbook was the

In these days, with the Bible legislated out of schools, many people have become concerned with the lack of religious training and of individual attention given to children. The sheer, overwhelming 30-pupils-perclassroom in the public schools has tended to de-individualize children.

The Mt. Top Christian Academy is a recognized branch of Accelerated Christian Education, with classes held locally in the Mt. Top Christian Assembly on Route 135 east of Mt. Lake Park. The first such school opened in Texas in 1971. Now there are 1500 schools with an enrollment of 80,000.

The local school, which opened its doors to 49 pupils in nursery through twelfth grade September 7, 1976, is part of a movement to put individuality back into schools, along with the Bible teachings which have been legislated out of public

The enrollment has now grown to 60 students, and plans are underway to double the number which can be accommodated at the training center next fall

There are no formal classes such as are common in public schools. Instead, each child has an "office" or desk space partitioned off around the wall of the huge training center and takes his work there to be completed. Students spend about four or five hours a day in their offices, which may contain some personal decorative items, a calendar, and a chart plotting their progress,

This busy reporter is hammering out an important news story. Perhaps he is reporting a bank robbery....or the threat of war or a major disaster, like an earthquake or a famine. The reporter is working against time. He has to get this story in the next edition, and he has to

Good reporting is an essential element of our democratic society. It is a highly specialized craft. Reporters and the rest of the newspaper staff must all blend into a dedicated, hard-working team. They must be an alert band of men and women on the job around the clock ready at a moment's notice.

Most newspaper stories come to a conclusion. They soon lose their "news" value, and become history.

But one of the greatest stories of all time is ever fresh ever relevant. It is the story of God's great Gift to man the story of a promise of life after death. Through the life of Jesus Christ, through the Holy Scriptures and through the Church, we can hear this story forever, knowing that the greatest story ever told is NEWS today.

A COLLECTION OF INDIAN ARTIFACTS kept children's attention during a presentation by James Ross and John E. Friend, of Friendsville, last Thursday at Broad Ford Elementary School. Fifth grade students in the school were guests in Miss Doris Opel's classroom to hear Mr. Ross tell of his collection of arrowheads of various types, and answer questions concerning local Shawnee Indians and their living habits. The children in Miss Opel's room began the project under direction of Mrs. Pam Biser, student teacher from Frostburg State College, as part of the social studies. At the conclusion of the unit, the entire fifth grade and their parents were invited to Miss Opel's room for a "Feast of Appreciation" consisting of currant combread, made with honey instead of sugar; sunflower seeds, beef jerky, popcorn, and maple sugar water.

Texas is the second largest state. Only Alaska is larger. But Texas has more than 40 times as many people as Alaska. Texas with its 296,000 square miles in land area makes up 712% of the U.S. It has 624 miles of coast line along the Gulf of Mexico. There are over 26 million acres of woodland.

Alonzo De Peneda sailed along Texas coast in 1519; Cabeza De Vaca and Coronoda visited the interior in 1541. Spaniards made the first settlement as Ystela, near El Paso in 1682. Mexico of which Texas was a part, won independence from Spain in 1821. In 1836, Davy Crockett, Jim Bowie and other famous heroes died at the Alamo fighting for freedom. Sam Houston led the Texans to final victory against the Mexicans. His battle cry was "Remember The Alamo!"

The frontier cowboy with his 10-gallon hat has long been a symbol of Texas. Cowboys still ride across the plains driving great herds of cattle. Texans have another hero, the astronaut During the 1960's the state became the permanent home of the men at the newest frontier - the frontier of space. Standing Ovation . . .

We wish to take this opportunity to congratulate the members of the Southern Highlander Marching Band and their director, Richard Clever, who are now enjoying a week of competition and fun in Florida. Many years of dedication and hard work by these people have resulted in this opportunity to represent the entire State of Maryland at the Festival of States. Community pride in this band is flying higher than a

Besides expressing pride in the band, citizens of Garrett County should give themselves a pat on the back. Without the financial support and labors of many people, this trip-of-a-lifetime for many students, would have been impossible.

Service organizations, merchants, parents and various other individuals should be given equal credit for their confidence and loyalty towards the band.

Presently in the northern end of the county, people are working furiously to raise money for the Northern High School Band to make their May 6 journey to Niagara Falls, Canada, a reality. There is no doubt in our minds that they too will reach their goal. Congratulations to members of the Northern band and their director, Melvin Schwing, are also in order.

How many other counties in the country can meet challenges like these? How many other counties are alive and moving with such vitality? Garrett County is probably in a minority.

Let us once again be aware and proud of our unique environment. We are not only blessed by clean air, lots of elbow room, beautiful forests and countrysides, but also diligent, steadfast people.

The Southern band received a standing ovation after a concert in St. Petersburg Monday. The people back home who helped make it all possible should receive one too.

Dr. Alfred C. O'Connell Announces Resignation As President Of GCC

The Board of Trustees of Garrett Community College announced this week the resignation of Dr Alfred C. O'Connell as president, effeetive August 1, 1977. He is leaving to accept the presidency of Harford Community College, a position heheld there from 1964 to 1967.

In his letter of resignation, O'Connell stated that the college's growth, development and high quality of instruction have exceeded the most optimistic projections and expectations...that in the future the college will have an even greater impact upon the citizens of Garrett County."

SHS Band Gets Standing Ovation

In St. Petersburg Members of the Southern Highlander Marching Band received a standing ovation after their performance Monday evening at the William Park Bandshell in St. Petersburg, Several St. Petersburg residents told Harold Trickett, president of the Southern Band Boosters, that this was the first standing ovation accorded a band in more than three years. Host to the band for their week's stay is Willard Gortner, a Garrett County native and member of the Sun Coasters organization which annually sponsors the Festival of States parade.

Monday the band presented a Maryland flag to Festival of States director Herbert C. Melleney, and the flag was then put on display in the Hall of Flags. Mr. Melleney was also given a marble paperweight, with the state seal.

The band then presented the mayor of St. Petersburg with a container of maple syrup.

Tuesday night the band participated in an illuminated parade following a fireworks display. Wednesday night there was scheduled field competition at Al Lang Stadium.

Today the band will be at noon.

Band director Richard Clever and some of the students were featured in the St. Petersburg newspaper Tues-The band has been practic-

ITS IMPACT ON ESTATES, TRUSTS, AND FINANCIAL PLANNING

Few tax laws will have as far-reaching an impact as the Tax Reform Act of 1976! It's been called the most significant overhaul of the Federal tax structure in a generation.

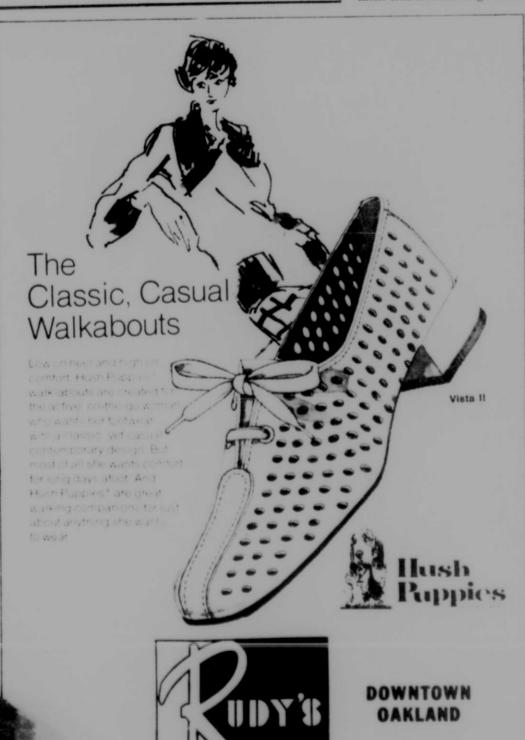

But the law is more than 1,000 pages long, and full of complexities that may not be resolved for some time. How, then, can people get the facts on how they, their families, and their businesses may be affected by the new law? For starters, many may find our attractive and informative folder, "TAX REFORM '76" to be helpful.

Any actual plans that are made should be done so only in conjunction with a lawyer or other planning adviser. However, "TAX REFORM '76" should give the average person a good idea as to the points to be explored further.

To get your FREE copy of this most informative folder, stop in at any one of our eight bank offices and ask for:

Although fire detecting devices in the home are usually referred to as smoke detectors, ones called heat detectors are available, too. Everyone should know how to escape during a fire, even if it can only be done by throwing a sheet out the window and climbing down.

Keep bedroom doors closed at night. "It is not the flames that will kill you," Bean explained. "It will most likely be the smoke. When doors are closed and the detector goes off, you can feel the door to see if it is hot. If so, you know not to go out. And you will still have time to get outside another way with air to breathe A closed door is a barrier from smoke and heat."

Children especially should be trained in escape routes. Sometimes they will climb under a bed and wait for parents to get them," Bean said. "And they die."

Smoke detectors sometimes have false alarms, such as kitchen. These are good times the fire is real. And the false alarms are a way of knowing that your detector works.

night it is a different story.

Some states have regulations requiring that all new homes have smoke detectors. West Virginia does not, but all Veterans Administration and Farm Management Housing Administration-financed houses must have detectors installed.

NOTICE

TO WATER CUSTOMERS IN OAKLAND

The Town of Oakland has approximately 850 water customers. Some have experienced frozen water lines and others have let water run to prevent freezing. Some have shared with their waterless neighbors. Neither the Town nor the customers have been at fault in the situation. In fairness to both, where there is evidence that any of the above has occurred, the March quarter water bills will be adjusted as follows:

- 1. The least amount a customer will pay will be the minimum quarterly charge.
- 2. The maximum a customer will pay will be the highest amount paid in any quarter during the past year.
- 3. If the amount of water consumed is less than the last quarter the customer will be billed for that amount.

With an exceptionally smooth conversion to this new system and after nine months experience in operation, we can now definitely say that through its speed, accuracy and efficiency. it has proven to be most acceptable in all fields as well as a time and money saver for The Garrett National Bank. We are justly proud of the fact that our bank was the first in Western Maryland to install such a system which we feel places one more emphasis on the reason why Garrett National Bank is truly "The Bank With An Eye To Your Future."

Sunday's cool temperatures found over 200 area citizens chanting and singing hymns in observance of the Holy day. Afterwards, a warm greeting was offered them at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, where the multitude converged for refreshments.

State Police Will Begin More Strict Speed Enforcement

By midnight, April 5, Maryland's highway death total was 25 above the same three-month period in 1976. As the result of these additional deaths, superintendent of the Maryland State Police, Col. T. S. Smith, has instructed all the troopers to begin a stepped-up enforcement program to apprehend speed violators.

The State Police will be utilizing conventional radar, VASCAR, speed guns, and additional unmarked cars in their highway patroling. They will also be using nontraditional vehicles, such as those impounded for various reasons, in detecting speeders. Sgt. H. C. Graham of the local detachment warns the public to obey speed laws.

RESURRECTED LIFE

Lesson for April 10, 1977

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

To me there is probably no more sacred nor mystical place in all England than Glastonbury It is a place that has to be experienced. description alone could not suffice-Many people know it as the ceputed burial site of the histori-and Queen Guinivere with in the magof Glastonbury Abbey, once the spiritual capitol of Britain Yet Glastonbury generally less well-known although greatly disputed, that Glastonbury was the place where Christianity was first introduced into Britain and by none other than Joseph of Arimathea The stone rolled away

When I first came across that tradition. I dismissed it as so much religious wishful-thinking-which it still may well be Yet, as I read more and more about Glastonbury. I discovered that this tradition may not be as far-fetched as it first seemed to lite for Joseph, the early apostles, be Although we may probably never know for certain, there is courage, for us as well some reason to believe that in the early years of the Church following the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Joseph of Arimathea may have landed at Glastonbury and brought the Gospel to the shores of Britain particularly when we contemplate the Joseph we encounter so briefly n the story of Jesus in the gospels Mark tell us that Joseph was a member of the Sanhedrin, the Jewish Council in Jerusalem Mark 15 43) He also indicates that Joseph was "looking for the kingdom of God" (15-43) Furthermore Luke tells us that Joseph had not approved of the Sanhedrin's decision against Jesus (Luke 23 50 51) Matthew adds that Joseph was a rich man and "a disciple of Jesus" Matthew 27:57 All three tell us that he asked Pilate for the body of Jesus after the crucifixion prepared the body for burial and placed it in his garden tomb He took courage

From these sparse details it has often been conjectured that Joseph was at least until Good Friday, a secret disciple of Jesus He was rich and prominent and could hardly afford to let his discipleship be known. If this conjecture is accurate, then Joseph made a remarkable change in his life the day Jesus was crucified When it seemed that everyone else had forsaken him - including Simon Peter - Joseph 'took courage" and did a daring thing asking Pilate for Jesus' body Joseph identified himself once and for all as a follower of the Master

Undoubtedly, whatever the facts there is another Undoubtedly, whatever the facts tradition at may have been, that Easter weekend changed Joseph's life forever. No longer would be be known as a rich member of the Council, but as the disciple in whose lovely garden tomb the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ was first discovered and experienced. It is believed that the resurrection faith sent the Apostle Thomas to India, perhaps it also sent Joseph of Arimathea to thank-you note Columbia Gas customers

Thanks" is short and to the point. But it's the best way we know to express our appreciation to you and other Columbia Gas customers after the worst winter in the history of the nation.

By turning down home thermostats, shutting off rooms, and taking other gas saving measures, many customers were not as comfortable in their homes as they have been in previous winters. These conservation steps, though, combined with emergency purchases and sacrifices by industrial and commercial customers, protected high priority needs during the extreme weather. This fine effort assisted us materially in maintaining service to all residential customers.

The crisis affected most of the nation. Never in its 50-year history has the Columbia Gas System been more sorely tested. As record cold temperatures persisted through November, December, January and February, the home-heating requirements of the almost four million homes served by the Columbia System put unprecedented demands on our supplies and delivery system.

Hopefully we will never experience another winter like this past one, but the need to conserve will continue. So, thank-you for your help in the past, and please continue to use gas wisely.

DNR Has Five Alternatives In Turkey Shortage

The Department of Natural Resources says it has five from Pennsylvania and West awarded the Medalist rating alternatives it could use to deal Virginia occurs. with the small population of wild turkeys for this coming fall's hunting season.

Statistics released by the Department show that an estimated 13,500 fall season turkey hunters will be in the 1,200 square mile area open to fall any-sex turkey hunting.

An indication of the chances of a hunter's success is that only 117 birds were killed during the 1976 season, a sharp decline from the 247 turkeys bagged in 1973. The reduction in the turkey population has taken place in the eastern one-quarter of fallhunted counties, between Hancock and Town Creek. That area accounted for 70 percent of the turkey harvest in 1973 but last year it accounted for only 42 percent of the harvest.

The DNR said that in the other three-quarters area lying has remained about the same as in recent years.

In the March issue of Maryland Fish and Wildlife News. the DNR said the five alternatives open are:

1. Close the fall turkey hunting statewide. It appears that any sex hunting of turkeys has been detrimental to the population in the eastern onequarter of the area open to fall turkey hunting. The DNR said closure statewide would remove this limiting factor. However, on the other hand, Garrett County and the western part of Allegany County have stable populations. Statewide closure would deny people who traditionally hunt these areas the opportunity to hunt turkeys in the fall.

Town Creek In the popular Green Ridge area fail harvest has fallen drastically. Closure of this area would protect the population which is troubled. But pressure could shift west future problems in that area.

3. Fall gobbler-only season, but these are said to be impractical because flocking patterns are such that adult gobblers are solitary and difficult to call. Large flocks of Oakland, a senior music eduhens and young, when scat- cation major at West Virginia tered, respond well to calling. Where Were They Then?

While this newspaper is generally in support of the Garrett County Commissioners in their quest to obtain 3.4 million dollars of federal money for the courthouse expansion, the objective of this editorial is not to list all the reasons why. We wish to make just one point which concerns not only this controversial issue, but

When different branches, offices and departments of Garrett County government are about to engage in expensive programs or make vital decisions, public meetings are normally called by the respective officials. The date, time and location of these meetings are usually advertised on radio and in newspapers well in advance.

The purpose of these meetings is for the decisionmakers to receive opinion and input from the public as to general feelings about the issue at hand. The governing officials appreciate this input, because it helps them tremendously in their arriving at decisions.

At many recent public meetings in Garrett County, including those dealing with the courthouse expansion project, attendance has been somewhere between poor and terrible. After such attendance, the natural feeling of those in charge is that there must be no major objections by the citizens.

Why did the protestors wait until the very last minute to air their objections? Public dissention and contrasting ideas can be healthy for any county, but it is usually best to express them first at the public meeting before going to pickets.

Granted, voicing opinions at public meetings may not change the minds of the officials, but at least it gives them some forewarning of citizen objection rather than leaving them in the dark until the morning that the bulldozers are to move in.

What bank in our area was the first to install its own computer service?

GNB, again!

With an exceptionally smooth conversion to this new system and after nine months experience in operation, we can now definitely say that through its speed, accuracy and efficiency, it has proven to be most acceptable in all fields as well as a time and money saver for The Garrett National Bank. We are justly proud of the fact that our bank was the first in Western Maryland to install such a system which we feel places one more emphasis on the reason why Garrett National Bank is truly "The Bank With An Eye To Your Future."

we expect Jesus to be limited to the temples, the courts, and main highways of life, does not mean that he is thus limited. If we look

THE SERENDIPITY ROAD Lesson for April 17, 1977

Background Scripture Devotional Reading

Serendipity, in case you've forgotten, is that happy faculty of discovering something of valuewhile in the act of searching for something else. (It comes from the ancient Arab name for Sri Lanka or Ceylon : All of us have serendipitu experiences, al though often we fail to recognize them as A little over four years ago 1 road to Emmaus. It was my first tour to the Holy Land and we were preparing to leave Jerusalem for Athens One day before our schedulec departure from Jerusalem we received word that Air France has suddenly and inexplicably can-celled our flight. We could not change to an alternate flight until the following day and our stay in Greece would thus be cut short by a day - a very valuable day in light of our brief itinerary there

Kept from recognizing him

What would we do with our extra day in Jerusalem. I asked our Arab guide? It was hard for me to suppress my keen disappointment which was shared by the members of the tour Elias, our guide. however, was happy for the opportunity to have one more day to show us the Holy Land "I have just the thing," he assured me.

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME IS HERE AGAIN or, it will be Sunday, April 24. Turning the clocks up one hour will give all of us valuable extra daylight in which to finish projects begun last fall or to start new ones to help make the home, farm or office more com-

For those of us who experienced one of the worst winters in American history, the added hour can allow us more time to find those air holes that sent cold chills down our spines or to plant rows of needed trees to break the severe wind that will certainly blow

For those who are inclined to the outdoors, the extra time allotted can mean the difference between planting a garden or simply dreaming about the possibility of one while stretched out on a summer

Of course, daylight saving time for some is a dreaded occasion. For those who awaken at 5:30 each morning, it means the clock's face will only fib a bit as it will really only be 4:30. What a dreary hour to rise; not even a sunrise to greet you, but then the promise of an extra hour to watch the sunset might be worth it all . . .

They reach out, wanting to touch and making a game of it. Who will be the first to give in, so that fingers will clasp in a burst of laughter?

Childhood play. It isn't always this easy. Later on, we want to bridge the gap that separates us from something or someone else. But often we don't have the nerve.

Sometimes we want to speak . . . and can't find our voices. Sometimes we honestly want to go to church . . . but it's been so long.

In anything, the hardest part is the first step. One foot, then another foot which, in the case of the church, leads straight to a wide-open door. The rest is easy.

"LOW SUNDAY"

Lesson for April 24, 1977 Background Scripture

Devotional Reading

In many churches the Sunday after Easter is known as "Low Sunday " One of my reference books says that "the origin of this title is not known." but anyone in the Christian ministry can tell you what its probable derivation is the Sunday after Easter u-sually sees a in attendence in most churches For the pas tor who is exhausted from the ministeria marathon Lent and Holy

Week it is often also "Low Sun day" both physiologically and psychologically Lent is over Easter has come and gone for another year

You are witnesses

If there is any truth in this ob servation, then there must be something radically wrong in the way we understand and observe the meaning of Lent and Easter "Low Sunday" is a seeming denial of the significance of Jesus resurrection which is more to be regarded as a beginning than an

The Gospels are instructive for what happened after the first - go back to "business-as-usual." Easter? Did the disciples go back to their nomes with a warm, but temporary feeling of well-being and victory - something akin having one's team win the World Series, the Super Bowl, the NCAA or the Stanley Cup? how excited we may get over these, how stale they seem a few No. it was not "back to business as usual "for the disciples. In fact, it would never again be "back" to anything The resurrection faith is like any other important spiritual truth it is not just something to "know," but something "to live out" in our lives It was not enough for the disciples to know that Jesus was risen, but the fact of his resurrection was something which was to deeply affect the way they lived for the rest of their

There was no "Low Sunday following the first Easter Jesus came to his disciples, not just to celebrate what had happened in the garden tomb of Joseph of Arimathea, but to tell them what to do about it After the celebration there was a commission " repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things (24 47).

Continually in the temple It is interesting that following the great commission the disciples were continually in the temple praising God" (24:53) Quite unlike our experience today, the fact of Easter was not a signal to decrease, but to increase their devotion to God. Not only did life go on after Easter. it accelerated It is not the attendence in church on "Low Sunday" that I am concerned about, but the implicit meaning of that let-down It does not bother me that churches are usually overflowing on Easter Sunday, but that so many of those

Help A Child . . .

We the people of the Mountaintop are continually reminded, usually by outsiders, about how wonderful Garrett County is. We often forget about how pleasant we have it here.

The New York Fresh Air Program is one route for others not nearly as fortunate to have the opportunity Dr. Jan W. Janssen Named to enjoy the finer things unique to our environment. The program involves taking a child from the slums of Acting President Of GCC New York City into our homes for two weeks vacation this summer.

Many of these children have never seen a single family house. Many have never seen a barn, a cow, a pond or a forest. Many have never seen darkness, much less the stars, due to the never ending light of the city.

These are things we can see and enjoy every day and night. It's so easy to take it all for granted. Here is a golden opportunity for us to share what we have with children who have so much less. Some may say, "What good will two weeks do for these children? They must then return to the same cage

Who knows how much encouragement and enlightenment that these two weeks could provide for a youngster? It could indeed change his entire outlook on life and perhaps even give him (or her) what it takes to one day break through the barrier of his ghetto

A strong community spirit of reverence to God was displayed during the recent Easter season. Instead of just speaking about brotherhood, let us now actually express it. Sign up today. (See story below for details).

Three Incidents

State Police investigated cases of larceny, property destruction and breaking and entering. Tfc. R. E. Friend investigated all incidents but no charges have been made.

The investigation was made of larceny of a battery charger from Maryland Silica Sand Company near Swanton last Tuesday. State Police are seeking identity of the occupants of a vehicle that was parked nearby at the approximate time of the crime. The same day the destruction of a window at Mellinger Enterprises on Md. 135 near Deer Park occurred.

Sometime during the night of April 18, a large window was struck several times and broken. No entry was attempted, however.

A summer home on Lake Shore Drive owned by Mary Clement of Mt. Lebanon, Pa., was broken into and entered during the winter. A radio, television and other household articles were taken.

Background Scripture Devotional Reading

Well, it's easier to sing than People don't like crosses - exept ornamental ones in church-

The origin of crosses Ideally, perhaps the answer is seems greatly to be desired The fact is, however, that crosses do not originate in Christianity nor is the cross to be men commit against themselves and their brothers. The Cross of his loving Father, but by the ignorance, the sinfulness, the wilfullness of his contemporaries

The answer is that, although can and does use them. God used whole world. God used the crosses.

spread the Good News of Jesus Christ And God can use the crosses in our lives to teach us some of the greatest truths of life. So, coming from the sin of man, the cross, symbol of man's moral failure and tragedy, is trans-formed by the redeeming power of God's love as revealed in Je-The key, it would seem, is to be found not in trusting that we will escape all crosses, but in the faith that all crosses can be transformed by the love of Jesus Christ Count it all joy

The writer of the Epistle of James seems to have a perverted attitude toward trials and temptations: "Count it all joy, my brethren, when you meet various trials." (James 1.2) He seems to be saying that we should be happy when we're miserable' That, however, is not what

James means. What he is saying is that the only way to transform our crosses is to take a different ates — and many titude toward them. If the purpose would much of the cross is to depress and discourage us, then we fulfill that purpose when we allow ourselves to be made depressed and be better if we discouraged If, instead, we look could have all at our crosses as opportunities, if the plusses of we concentrate on the benefits Christianity that can be squeezed from our afwithout the fliction if we can keep our eyes minus of the fixed on the crown, then we have begun to rob our cross of its power over us. The only way to defeat or transform a cross is to refuse to let it accomplish in us what it is supposed to accomplish. This is what James means when he says "Blessed is the man who endures trial for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of found in the will of God He does life which God has promised to those who love him" (1:12). If we keep that in mind, then, as James
